

VATICAN CRIMES

Subido por vaticanocrimes el 15/05/2011

The world is discovering how the Catholic Church has manipulated politics and international laws to benefit themselves - and in the process have managed to protect pedophile priests and covered up the millions of crimes that they have committed against children and humanity as a whole.

The Director of BBC's "Vatican and Sex Crimes" and Colm O'Gorman, who is today the Director of Amnesty International in Dublin speaks to the TeleGracia Investigative News Team to share details on how the Catholic Church simply transfers priests from parish to parish to silence sex scandals.

Do not miss this alarming interview which exposes the corrupt practices of the Vatican and its leaders and how they work hand in hand with the government to disguise themselves as "men of God" when since their inception all they have been after is money and power -utilizing the name of God to commit evil, hiding behind their cassocks.
